

NO FARMS NO FOOD® SPEAKER SERIES

Join the American Farmland Trust as we continue our No Farms No Food® Speaker Series, showcasing local leaders working on food, farm, and farmland issues around Seattle. Each speaker will give a short presentation followed by a question and answer period and plenty of time for casual conversation over fresh, local beer. There will be a cash bar and free appetizers.

March Speaker Chris Curtis, Founder and Director of the Neighborhood Farmers Market Alliance with special guest Andrew McElwaine, President and CEO of American Farmland Trust

Chris Curtis of the Neighborhood Farmers Market Alliance (NFMA) will speak about the Seattle Farmers Market movement and direct market farming. NFMA is a community-based non-profit organization operating seven farmer/food only markets in Seattle neighborhoods. NFMA's mission is to support and strengthen Washington's small farms and farming families by creating and operating vibrant, successful neighborhood farmers markets.

Don't miss the opportunity to meet American Farmland Trust President and CEO, Andrew McElwaine. Visiting us from DC, Andrew will be on hand for a meet and greet after Chris's presentation.

When: Wednesday, March 19th
6:30 to 8 PM

Where: Asgard Tavern – Tasting Room
1300 N Northlake Way, Seattle, WA

Please RSVP to Kate Delavan at kdelavan@farmland.org. Space is limited. We hope you can join us!

Can't make it? Follow us on Facebook to learn about future events, American Farmland Trust-Pacific Northwest